

Daniel 11, Part 3 -“The kings of the Earth”

In this chapter, let us continue to gain a greater understanding in the book of Daniel as we proceed to move forward.

Daniel 11:35 And some of them of understanding shall fall, to try them, and to purge, and to make them white, even to the time of the end: because it is yet for a time appointed.

Let us break this verse down and see what is going on. Here, we understand that Jesus and His faithful church leaders who had understanding died at the hands of Rome as so many millions did and still do till this day. This "tried" the church's faith.

When we look into history, we can conclude that whenever a leader is martyred, many of the weaker Christians experience their faith being strengthened, and many nonbelievers come into the faith realizing its bold and precious truths. At the same time, many of the weak also leave the church. They are "purged" because they have not the faith or courage to stand in obedience unto death. James 1:3-4 says, "Knowing this, that the trying of your faith worketh patience. But let patience have her perfect work, that ye may be perfect and entire, wanting nothing." Historic fact is, whenever the church was persecuted, it was pure, or "made white" because only the strong in Christ had the courage to stand in such a persecuted church. Whenever persecution ended, the church was always filled with the weak in faith, the hypocrites and apostates who feared to be in the church during its trial. Once they joined, their influence eventually weakened the church, and this is why we see the Bible saying, "to purge, and to make them white".

Furthermore, the verse goes on to say, "even to the time of the end: because it is yet for a time appointed". Looking into the year 1798AD, it is the time the persecutions" ended" for the most part due to the fact that Napoleon sent in his General Breathier to take the Pope captive. However, persecutions do continue to this day, not as they did during this "appointed time" of exactly 1260 years as Daniel 7:25, Revelation 12:6 and Revelation 13:5 all proclaim. However, as we can see today by all the Christians dying for their faith*, this mortal wound of 1798AD is healing as prophesied in Revelation 13:3. Therefore, even though the "appointed" time during the 1260 years came to an "end," it will start up again because "it is yet for a time appointed" in our day.

*NOTE: As of 2010, 200,000+ Christians die each year at the hands of Muslims and another 175,000 are tortured. Many claim that this proves Islam to be Antichrist. But those with eyes that see know that the Vatican was behind the inception of the religion of Islam as well as the writing of their holy book. Rome's wound is healing. But they use craftiness as Daniel 8:25 predicted to hide their agenda. During the Inquisition, they used many Civil authorities to kill Christians; in World War II, they used Hitler to kill Jews and Christians; and today, they use Islam to kill Christians. So, even though it looks like Rome is innocent of these crimes, we now have the evidence before us.

- John Paul II admitted on March 12, 2000 it was the Popes that used Civil powers to kill Christians.
- We have documented evidence the Pope was behind Hitler's third Reich.

- We now have documented evidence the Vatican created the religion of Islam and wrote their Koran to create a race of killers.

Daniel 11:36 And the king shall do according to his will; and he shall exalt himself, and magnify himself above every god, and shall speak marvellous things against the God of gods, and shall prosper till the indignation be accomplished: for that that is determined shall be done.

Here, when we look into this verse and based on where we are at in history, when it is referring to the king, it is speaking of the king of the north, which at this time is the Papacy. As Daniel has done before when speaking on Pagan Rome, he would always outline certain events regarding its rise to power and then retraced those events to confirm this in the minds of the readers. He does the same thing here with Papal Rome. In verses 30-35 of this chapter, he spoke of Papal Rome's rise to power, and now in 36-39, he is repeating his findings to further highlight the facts.

Furthermore, just as in other chapters of Daniel, we have now Daniel 11:36 telling us that this king of the north, the papacy, "shall do according to his own will". The Papacy has always ruled over kings and queens of Europe to please his own design.

Next, we also understand that he, the pope, shall exalt himself. It is a fact that the popes of Rome had placed themselves as above every government on earth claiming it was the right of the church to do so. All leaders agreed, except those that ended being destroyed by war. The fact that King Henry IV of Germany stood barefoot in the snow wearing a camel hair shirt for three days begging the pope to rescind his political excommunication in January of 1077AD proves this hands down. This method of control is being reignited today as we see the Popes stealthily controlling all nations on earth politically via their seat on the U.N. and all churches religiously via the seat of "leader" in the United Religions (U.R.). The wound that heals that John spoke of in Revelation 13:3 is occurring today.

We all can see how the pope has magnified himself above every god. The title "Lord God the Pope" ("Extravagantes" of Pope John XXII Cum inter, Tit. XIV, Cap. IV.) is just one of many Vatican statements of the Pope declaring himself to be a "god on earth." -Lucius Ferraris, «Prompta Bibliotheca», 1763, Volume VI, 'Papa II', pp.25-29.

As it was back then, it is happening today that all politicians, churches and media "magnify" the Popes above the Lord God by using the title "Holy Father" when referring to him time and time again.

Just as the pope will claim to be god and a number of other abominable statements, this verse tells us that the pope shall speak marvelous things against the God of gods, which is blasphemy. This is the main fruit of the Popes of Rome. To claim to be a god on earth is blasphemy according to John 10:33, and to claim to forgive the sins of men is another blasphemy according to Mark 2:7. The Popes also claim to have the power to remove Christ from His throne to imprison Him inside the Eucharist of the Mass, when in fact, Acts 17:24 says, "God that made the world and all things therein, seeing that he is Lord of heaven and earth, dwelleth not in temples made with hands."

Furthermore, looking at Rome from a historical perspective and modern-day adorning, she has clearly prospered from evil. As it was back then, it is today where the Papacy has not only prospered in causing the whole world to "wonder after the beast" (Revelation 13:3,4) by causing all leaders to bow to its political agendas but also caused churches to embrace much of her doctrines, including the spurious Pagan Sabbath. The Vatican is also known to prosper in riches as well. It has been stated on camera recently by a leader in the U.K. that if you were to add all the gold from all the gold mines of the world throughout all of human history, you would still never reach the riches contained within the Vatican.

The Bible informs as well that she "shall not only prosper, but this will continue till the indignation be accomplished". Over 86% of Roman Catholic doctrine is "unworthy" to be called truth in that it is nowhere to be found in the Scripture of the Christian God. One of her most prominent lies is the false Sabbath of the Pagan gods that is a source of offence against the Creator God. This indignity sufficiently draws many away from the Creator to embrace the false god of the Popes. Rome will do as she does, especially in spreading her false doctrines and persecuting God's people all the way up until Jesus returns to tread, "...the winepress of the fierceness and wrath of Almighty God" (Revelation 19:15).

The sure Word of the prophecies of God is ironclad. They will happen exactly as the Most High has proclaimed, and then the end will come. In other words, Rome will do what it does, but only as God will allow. There will come a day when her power will end because it has been declared to end by the very God they mock! (See Revelation 14:9,10 & Daniel 7:11.) No matter how powerful these followers of Satan may appear or even become, the will of God cannot be undone. That which is determined to happen will happen... for that which God has determined shall be done, just as this verse states...Amen and Praise our God.

Daniel 11:37 Neither shall he regard the God of his fathers, nor the desire of women, nor regard any god: for he shall magnify himself above all.

So, as we read this verse and understand who the king of the North is, which is the Papacy, the Bible says that "Neither shall he regard the God of his father's".

The papacy is made up of men that worship Pagan gods, not the God of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob. And while claiming to be a Christian church, they disregard the God of creation. The early church did worship the Lord, but the Papacy mixed that worship with Paganism and sufficiently disregarded the God of their fathers.

When we look into this verse, we can connect the dots here even more when Scripture says, "nor the desire of women". One central doctrine of the Roman Catholic prelates is their "celibacy" doctrine. The priests openly disregard the Word where to command all pastors to be the "husband of one wife" (1 Timothy 3:2) while at the same time fulfill the prophecy of 1 Timothy 4:3 wherein it states they will "forbid to marry." The Roman Catholic church is also well known in today's world as the largest known organized group of homosexual pedophiles.

We also understand how this whore regards any god. The truth is, when you look at how the Popes are set up as a "god on earth," they not only place themselves above the God of creation, they deny their own Pagan gods as well, thereby, placing Satan on the back seat as well.

We also can clearly see that "he", the pope, "shall magnify himself above all". This is indeed the main fruit of Roman Catholic prelates. Like Caesar of Rome, the Popes of Papal Rome declare themselves god of all. (See <http://www.remnantofgod.org/beastword.htm#earthgod> ) Their doctrine of "transubstantiation" wherein they claim power over even Jesus Christ Himself openly declares they "magnify" themselves above all just as prophecy predicted. They also claim to be able to change Scripture and make doctrines that even God Himself must obey. In Daniel 7:25, it states the Papacy will think to change God's Sabbath commandment. They have done that in declaring that the Pagan Sabbath of Sunday has replaced the seventh day Sabbath of the Creator God.

Daniel 11:38 But in his estate shall he honour the God of forces: and a god whom his fathers knew not shall he honour with gold, and silver, and with precious stones, and pleasant things.

Now, where we read, "But in his estate", it is still referring to the king of the north the (Papacy). And he shall honor the God of forces. What does this mean? While we know that Rome is a political establishment, the Papacy claims to be a Christian church, not to mention or forget, but the Antichrist honors God in "lip service" when they claim to be Christians to the world yet preach lies and hypocrisies. This is what is meant by the statement they "hold the truth in unrighteousness" (See Romans 1:18). They speak the Word yet embrace sin. They claim Christ Lord (honor Him) yet worship Mary (Pagan queen) instead. Some claim the "God of forces" has to do with military, and the Papacy does, in fact, use the military in a big way even today. Others claim it has to do with the New Age "forces" of which the Papacy also embraces today in their ecumenical message. The "God of forces" is in fact the true God here. Not only do the translators capitalize the name "God" here, but it also appears verifiable by the next statement made by Daniel. He says he will honor the God of forces AND a god his fathers never knew. The Papacy does in fact "honour" the Christian God with lip service while at the same time embraces gods the forefathers never knew. That of course being the Pagan gods of ancient Rome.

The word "and" is changing the subject and not adding to the original statement regarding the "God of forces." The fact that the "God of forces" is capitalized and this second reference to "a god" is not capitalized suggests that it is speaking of two different entities. Also in V39, Daniel says that the will have a stronghold with a "strange god", which again, does suggest two entities are being spoken of here.

The verse goes on to exclaim, "whom his fathers knew not". Daniel 11V37 did declare that the "God of his fathers" was the Creator God. The Papacy mixed Christianity with Paganism. The Pagan gods (lowercase g) were not "known" by the Christian forefathers as worthy of worship. Mary is a good example of this in that they call her "Queen of Heaven" as did the Pagans that provoked God to anger in Jeremiah 7:18; 44:17-19,25.

Furthermore, the Scripture tells us that he shall “honor with gold, and silver, and with precious stones, and pleasant things”. The Vatican and all its churches are a perfect fulfillment of this passage in that they are literally drenched in gold, silver, precious stones, and pleasant things that are all dedicated to 365 Pagan gods as well as the Pagan Queen of Heaven. Yes, some of these riches also appear to be dedicated to Jesus Christ as well. But as Paul predicted in 2 Corinthians 11:3-4, this is "another Jesus" in the Roman churches.

Also, see Truth Provided Broadcast, question #1 on 12-05-04 Who is the God of forces, & the False Prophet?"

Daniel 11:39 Thus shall he do in the most strong holds with a strange god, whom he shall acknowledge and increase with glory: and he shall cause them to rule over many, and shall divide the land for gain.

NOTE: Most students of prophecy from historical SDA days believed that we now come to future prophecies from this point forward. All the verses prior to #39 are well documented to be history. However, it is now 2012 and some of the "future" prophecies from V39 are now in the past by only a few years. As documented records prove, V39 came to fruition in our generation.

In verse 39 of Daniel we read, “Thus shall he do”; this is speaking of the popes. As we continue to read the verse, it tells us that the pope shall “in the most strong holds with strange god.” It is revealing the places wherein the Pagan gods of Rome were not especially popular or embraced. Rome has had great success here moving people to worship Mary and other so-called Roman Catholic saints. In fact, in the false religions of the American Indians, the Tibetan Dalai Lama, and Hindus, we find that "a woman" is prophesied to bring peace to the world. Even Muslims speak of Mary with high regard. As we watched John Paul II travel around the world in his pontificate, he did, in fact, gather most nations to embrace Roman Catholicism. The Pope now has (as of 2011) 175 nations in agreement with the Vatican.

Furthermore, we read how this verse says, “whom he shall acknowledge and increase with glory”. The movement in the Vatican for the last few decades alone is to place Mary as co-saviour around the world! In fact, three Popes and many prelates use the title "coredemptrix" (coSaviour) when speaking of Mary. In fact, John Paul II, who had the motto "TOTUSTUUS SUM MARIA", which in English translates to: "MARY, I'M ALL YOURS" embroidered upon his robes, stated in 1997 "It is possible to understand the authentic meaning of Marian worship in the Ecclesial community... which furthermore is based on the will of Christ" (Vatican Information Service, May 7, 1997) At present, many non-Christian religions speak of Mary in high regard, including the Vatican contrived nation of Islam.

Next, taking a look into this verse where it says, “he shall cause them to rule over many”, we can see that the popes, especially John Paul II, caused "marian worship" to become a controlling factor in all the nations in agreement with them. In fact, all Catholics to this day worship Mary and the Roman Catholic saints as gods that can hear their prayers. This has caused all to become subjects or "ruled" over by the whim of these demons that cause many types of manifestations around the world to keep them subject to their rule.

And they “shall divide the land for gain” is referring how in the past, and to this day, no political leader will do anything major without first asking permission from the popes. As Roman Catholic priest, Malachi Martin admits in his book, "The Keys of This Blood" on page 430 "The Vatican knows Saturday what will happen on Monday anywhere in the world." And on page 143 he stated, "Papal structure is prepared for worldwide rule now." That book was published in 1990 when the Pope only had 91 nations in agreement. At John Paul II's death, they had 174 nations, and soon after, China joined to make it 175. The papacy has always claimed the right to divide the planet as she sees fit. The "Club of Rome" has already divided it into "ten kingdoms" on paper as of 1973. This "New World Order" is Rome's modern-day prophetic fingerprint exposing them. Most claim the Popes have no such power, but they have had this power for eons. When the Normans under king Henry II took Ireland, it was Pope Adrian IV who first “gave him permission” to do so.

Daniel 11:40 And at the time of the end shall the king of the south push at him: and the king of the north shall come against him like a whirlwind, with chariots, and with horsemen, and with many ships; and he shall enter into the countries, and shall overflow and pass over.

As we break this verse down, we can see that at the time of the end, referring to 1798AD when the Pope's power was "mortally wounded" as Revelation 13:3 predicted. One can see this as a two-phase event when speaking of the "time of the end" as well in that, herein is the end of the Papal reign (for a time), and the 2300-year prophecy of Daniel 8:14 clearly defines the "time of the end" to be 1844 and on when the present truth can now go forward unencumbered by the Papacy.

And it also says that the king of the south push at him. If you look at Communism today, it is of the same mindset of ancient atheistic Egypt in that they too deny the Christian God. Hence the king of the south here symbolically depicts Egypt and their atheistic theology and can be seen "*pushing" at the Popes in how all nations previously dominated by Papal authority were overthrown by revolution and even war to become communist nations. The people rebelled against Christianity because of the way the Popes violently portrayed it. For example, the French revolution with Napoleon can be seen in the same light as ancient Egypt in that they boldly denied all belief and worship of a Deity and "pushed" so hard that the Pope was pulled from power (mortally wounded) in 1798 and died in captivity in the year 1799 just as Revelation 13:3,10 predicted.

And since the last few verses discuss in detail the papacy and its "spiritual" corruptions, it obviously holds the title "king of the north" more so in the spiritual realm than a geographical sense. Especially now since its power is to spread globally surpassing the northern regions as it were. We must also agree that if, in fact, this chapter is speaking of the same time span as Daniel 2, 7 & 8, (which it is) and if Rome is the final kingdom in all these chapters, (which it is) and if this chapter (11) is on the same time frame, (which it is) then the king of the north is the Roman Catholic church. (*James White agreed with this decision.) NOTE: Some say the king of the north is a different entity here by the use of grammar. If I were to put this in today's words, I would say the king of the south is pushing at him, and the king of the north is simply responding to that push. One can go so far as to declare the king of the north to be a "revived" version of his former self in that revenge is part of the picture. We can see this clearly in history in how the Popes from this day forward infiltrated and manipulated numerous countries to assure a "healing" to the wound administered in 1798. The fact Daniel declares that this king comes against the king of the south like a "whirlwind" suggests a vengeful or revived attitude. One last thing to ponder. In the SDA Encyclopedia vol. 10 pg.366, it states the following, "As used in the prophecy of Daniel, a cryptic term for what was taken away by a power described as "a little horn, which waxed exceeding great" in the vision of Dan. 8 and as the "king of the north" in Dan. 11" (also see notes confirming same at verse 45 below).

As the verse talks about "come against him like a whirlwind", this eventually leads to the healing of the deadly wound that was administered in 1798AD when the pope was captured and taken to France. The Papacy came against all its enemies like a "whirlwind" since then. Since 1929AD with the Lateran Treaty allowing the Vatican to regain its "church & State" status, the king of the north has been exceptionally vicious. So much so, all opposing nations have fallen to the Pope's demands by agreements politically or by war to the point that 175 nations are now in agreement with him, and all Communist nations (king of the south) have fallen in one way or another. The Soviet Union fell literally, the Berlin wall came down in pieces, and China has obviously come into agreement with the Pope in such a way they are now considered a capitalist nation today. The Papacy has also been instrumental in forming a "New World Order" in that her attack on all opposers can be easily seen as a "whirlwind."

And with Rome having many chariots, and horsemen, and with many ships, it is obvious that they have military power (see 1 Kings 1:5; 20:1, Isaiah 22:6,7, Jeremiah 46:9, Ezekiel 39:20). No one will deny that when Rome wants a nation to bow to her demands, she will use the military strength of whatever nation she controls at that time. She tried this with Hitler in WW2 and failed, but since then has regrouped and has been very successful in doing this today by using the military power of the United States. Every nation that has gone to war since WW2 have bowed to Rome in agreement directly after their wars ended and their leaders replaced.

Furthermore, as we read more into this verse, we see how Rome shall enter into the countries, and shall overflow and pass over. The success of the Vatican against the "king of the south" (atheistic Communism) in modern day has been very apparent. Especially when Pope John Paul II and Ronald Reagan joined forces to cause Russia to fall as well as the Berlin wall. However, it is even more apparent today as we see riots in many anti-Christian nations right now (2011-2012) where new constitutions approved by Rome have been drafted. This was never more apparent after the European Union ratified their new constitution where within 24 hours Germany, the home country of the present Pope, passed Sunday laws that will eventually become more strict.

*NOTE: the word "push" is defined as "war" in Daniel 8:4 wherein Medo-Persia (the two horned ram) "pushed" west, north and south in their many conquests.

Daniel 11:41 He shall enter also into the glorious land, and many countries shall be overthrown: but these shall escape out of his hand, even Edom, and Moab, and the chief of the children of Ammon.

- He, the papacy, shall enter also into the glorious land, which is referring to Catholicism infiltrating the true church of Jesus Christ. This has clearly been done through most of the seven churches of Revelation 2 and 3, especially in both Protestantism as well as the SDA church. The "glorious land" can also be translated as follow:

In Strong's Concordance:

Glorious = beautiful, goodly, pleasant, roebuck, gazelle, honorable (Strong's #06643)

Land = way, field, nations, wilderness, Israel, tribe, region, territory (Strong's #0776)

In these definitions, we can see the followers of Christ as they are described in prophecy many times.

The verse speaks of how “many shall be overthrown”, meaning that many "of the faith" have been overthrown by Roman Catholic doctrines for ages.

Furthermore, “these shall escape out of his hand” where we can see that in all ages, we have had God's faithful people who refused to bow to Papal heresies. Many of course were martyred, but even though they died, they still "escaped out of his hand" to gain their reward in Heaven. We also know the "woman" (church/bride of Christ) escaped into "the wilderness, where she hath a place prepared of God...to be nourished for a time, and times, and half a time" -Revelation 12:6, 14.

When taking a look at Edom, Moab and the children of Ammon, these represent the enemies of ancient Israel. 1 Samuel 14:47 says, "So Saul took the kingdom over Israel, and fought against all his enemies on every side, against Moab, and against the children of Ammon, and against Edom, and against the kings of Zobah, and against the Philistines: and whithersoever he turned himself, he vexed them." Many of the ancient Jews have been lured into what would eventually become Catholicism. Some were even indoctrinated by Catholic prelates stealing infant Jews and raising them Catholic. This was done in a major way in Hitler's day. But as we see today, many of them have "escaped" Papal heresy as well. They too will join with our number soon. In fact, there are already many Jews that have accepted Christ as Saviour within the church right now (see Isaiah 11:11-16).

Daniel 11:42 He shall stretch forth his hand also upon the countries: and the land of Egypt shall not escape.

He, the Papacy (king of the north), shall stretch for his hand also upon the countries just as the club of Rome had begun to do in April of 1968 when the leaders from ten countries gathered in Rome. They have specific plans to divide the world "into ten political/economic regions, which it refers to as “kingdoms.” These ten "kingdoms" were also mentioned in Revelation 17:12, "And the ten horns which thou sawest are ten kings, which have received no kingdom as yet; but receive power as kings one hour with the beast." All leaders in agreement with Rome since Hitler have called this "ten-fold union" the "New World Order."

When verse 42 speaks of “the land of Egypt shall not escape”, we can recall how Egypt is the prophetic symbol of Atheism (see Exodus 5:2). It has already been noted by all political leaders that are either Atheist, secular, or simply non-Christian that they have agreed to lend their support to the Pope's NWO agenda. In so much so that when Sunday Laws are enforced, due to their agreements, they will not escape the laws enacted by the Papacy. This is mentioned in Revelation 13:3, "And I saw one of his heads as it were wounded to death; and his deadly wound was healed: and all the world wondered after the beast." The reason that this is a future event, of which even nonbelievers agree, is because this prophecy in Revelation 13:3 speaks of it occurring after the mortal wound of 1798AD is finally healed. When that day comes, Sunday Laws will follow shortly thereafter.

Daniel 11:43 But he shall have power over the treasures of gold and of silver, and over all the precious things of Egypt: and the Libyans and the Ethiopians shall be at his steps.

He, the Papacy (king of the north), shall have power over the treasures of gold and of silver, and over all the precious things. The Pope asked for "moral control" of the global currency in July of 2009, and made stern political demands on this in 2011. The Pope already controls the globally fashioned EU currency. PLUS, it was noted recently by a UK politician on camera that the Vatican right now has more gold than all the gold mines of history combined. Prophecy does say the beast will enforce a mark that prevents "buying and selling" in Revelation 13:17. Without the ability to "have power over" all trade, as the Pope is right now demanding, the Pope will be unable to enforce his mark. As of March of 2012, this is a future prophetic event.

Where we see how it says "of Egypt", in prophecy, this country is defined as atheism. Egypt is also known for its rich oil and coal deposits as well as fertile regions of the Nile. This is also a future prophetic event that occurs once the Vatican has control of the global economy (John 14:29 applies here).

We read next where it says, "Libyans and the Ethiopians at his steps", this is a future prophetic event (John 14:29 does apply here). Yes, this is a future event, but we can get some clues as to its fruition. If we look at the symbolic means of Libya and Ethiopia, we find that ancient Libyans lived on the edge of the desert and always desired the fertile Nile valley of Egypt. Therefore, Libya symbolizes the third world countries Rome is at war with right now (2012AD). The Ethiopians on the other hand were always looked upon as wealthy due to their goldmines, cattle, ivory and ebony. They also had much traffic from Africa that had to pass through Ethiopia to get to Egypt. Therefore, Ethiopia symbolizes the Western World with their astronomical traffic and wealth. In other words, no one will escape the reach of the Papacy once its mortal wound is healed.

Daniel 11:44 But tidings out of the east and out of the north shall trouble him: therefore he shall go forth with great fury to destroy, and utterly to make away many.

Again, breaking this verse down, seeing how it says, "tidings from the east (shall trouble him)", we can see that Ezekiel 43:1-2, Revelation 7:1-3, and Revelation 16:12 speak of the loud cry that is initiated by the angel that comes from "the east." The truth God's faithful remnants are moved by the Lord to proclaim at this time spreads globally and makes it literally impossible for the Papacy to control all souls on earth. Many will "escape out of his hand" as verse 41 declared due to this loud cry. The Biblical message of this remnant people coupled with the Latter Rain "shall trouble him" to great lengths.

Then it goes on to say, "and out of the north shall trouble him" because of the loud cry "troubling" the Papacy at this time, the Pope goes ahead with Sunday Laws to try and quench the forward movement of truth. But that act forces the end to come upon him and all mankind. Jesus, the "great King... on the sides of the north" (Psalm 48:1,2), a place Satan longs to sit in (Isaiah 14:13), drops the censor, the plagues begin to "trouble" the Papacy even more.

And then it says, "he shall go forth with great fury to destroy, and utterly to make away many", which refers to the little time of trouble. Many will die for their faith who refuse to go along with all that the Papacy is doing at this time. As of 2012, hundreds of thousands of Christians are dying right now in many Middle Eastern nations that have bowed to the Pope's power. The mortal wound of 1798AD will eventually heal and the mark of the beast will be enforced which leads to Sunday Laws. As the remnant people refuse to bow to the Papal mandate, laws will be passed allowing the killing of Sabbath keeping Christians as a legalized act.

Daniel 11:45 And he shall plant the tabernacles of his palace between the seas in the glorious holy mountain; yet he shall come to his end, and none shall help him.

Again, he, the Papacy "king of the north", shall plant the tabernacles of his palace", which refers to the political seat of his influence and control that we see today as well.

And then it speaks of his tabernacles of his palace that will be "between the seas", which is referring to between the people he will plant his palace. Looking into Revelation 17:15, "And he saith unto me, The waters which thou sawest, where the whore sitteth, are peoples, and multitudes, and nations, and tongues." To come "between the seas" symbolizes Satan encroaching on Christ's Sanctuary ministry. He tries to come "between" God's people and God's will for them by using the Papacy and its power on so many that think it's "holy" to prevent as many as he can from hearing present truth that calls them out of Babylon and into Christ's arms. It is also Satan's 6000-year final desire to "sit also upon the mount of the congregation" -Isaiah 14:13. It is here he seeks to do just that.

Furthermore, the verse exclaims, "in the glorious holy mountain." This represents Jerusalem, which is actually spiritual Israel or "the Remnant of her seed" that Revelation 12:17 speaks of that angers the dragon. Jerusalem also represents the Lord's Heavenly Sanctuary which also exposes Satan's expressed will to rule as a god "in the sides of the north" -Isaiah 14:13. Jerusalem gives him that option to do so in a mockery of the Heavenly Sanctuary. This is why Rome has sought the physical land of Jerusalem for thousands of years. It is seen as the ultimate insult to God. (One can also see a symbolic fulfillment here in the once obedient SDA church which was once seen as this "glorious holy mountain." The king of the north can bring his form of worship within it as well to further insult the Lord. Being the Papacy, it is common knowledge that the Roman Catholic church is the author of the Sunday Sabbath. (They admit it here.) Hence, they clearly see an opportunity to bring about Sunday worship within the SDA church as a great insult unto the Lord. They have already begun in fact. Click here for confirmation.)

Next, we see how it says, "he shall come to his end." This is evidently clear that this is the final straw. His coming "between the seas" is Satan's final act of rebellion assuming to "sit upon the mount of the congregation, in the sides of the north" - Isaiah 14:13. Since it is God who enacts punishment upon him, "he shall come to his end" here and...

And it goes on to say none shall help him, because it is God Himself enacting judgment upon him. This act expedites Jesus' return as intimated in Isaiah 14:13-15 and effectively causes the Papacy and her cohorts of the New World Order to only "rule as kings one hour with the beast" (Revelation 17:12). Satan's rule on earth is then suspended for 1000 years (Revelation 20:2-3). Jesus returns with us at the end of those 1000 years and puts a literal end to Satan and his cohorts in the executive judgment of Hellfire (Revelation 20:9). Another reason "none shall help him" is due to the fact that all his cohorts burn with him.

Take NOTE here: Isaiah speaks of this day and the judgment that falls upon Satan in Isaiah 14:13-15 where it says, "For thou hast said in thine heart, I will ascend into heaven, I will exalt my throne above the stars of God: I will sit also upon the mount of the congregation, in the sides of the north: I will ascend above the heights of the clouds; I will be like the most High. Yet thou shalt be brought down to hell, to the sides of the pit."

It is a wonderful thing to see how the Bible accurately prophecies the future and then to see how accurate history falls right into place. We do have an awesome God who is enlightening His people before the great crisis this world has ever come to know. And this is what we will be going over in our next study when we proceed forward in Daniel 12 with Michael the great prince shall stand. May the Lord bless each of us with great understanding as this great controversy comes to an end.
